

ミラさまの優雅なバスタイム♪

The nine elders who supported the kingdom 30 years ago known as the nine wisemen

But for now let's review what Mariana has told me have all disappeared

Which is to say that I was not the only one to disappear

はく

However the Elder of the magical tower "The natural disaster Luminaria" was the only one to return 20 years ago..

-Now-

As for the matter of visiting the Capital

My Wasteful friend Luminaria

はく

I was surprised by the five senses in a VR game, but still.. Hotbaths are great.....

Not wearing any underwear Will not do

I've had to endure the limits of shame while being used like a dressup doll

Mariana was strangely eager Having Luminaria's chamberlain come over...

If's a cute outfit you're looking for, then leave it to me!

キラキラ

Changing my equipment to that of a girl's forcibly...

My cool equipment that i take pride in....!

おはは！

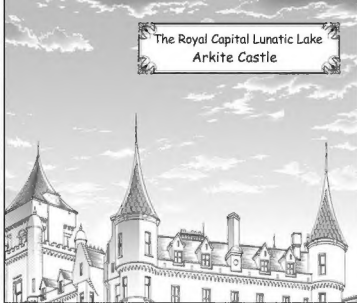

Not bad Solomon

The Royal Capital Lunatic Lake
Arkite Castle

Even the feeling you get from it's speed is impressive

As expected from long distance carriages. I thought it would take longer to pass through Silverwand

Ack!

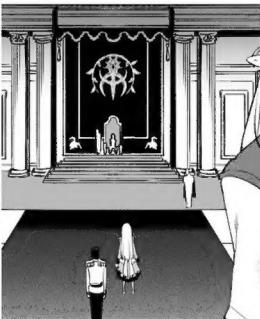

And King Solomon went as far as using these long distance carriages to see you

I have brought the disciple of
the Elder Danbalf,
Miss Mira

Nice to meet you miss Mira
I am King
Solomon's
aide, Suleiman

For starters, I would like to confirm whether or not you are truly Dunbalf's disciple
if that's alright
with you

This

Nothing that comes close may pass

Except for exceptions guests are not permitted to move beyond the blackarea of the carpet

Handing it to the guards is sufficient

Don't come any closer!
There is a limit to disrespect!

The part of the sword held by that little girl wont
budge

Ack
!?

I see, sorry about that while we are at it can you del ver
this?

Not having the appearance of Dunbalf
is inconvenient

OR ARE YOU PLANNING TO MAKE ME WAIT
ANY LONGER?

But King
Solomon, what of this person s disrespect

Lenard
Bring that to me

I have told you that this one s also an exception from the beginning

It's been confirmed so lets change
location.

If you say this is handed from the master
to the disciple
then there is no reason to doubt it

There is no mistaking it, this belongs to Dunbalf

Yea
that s
fine

Dunbalf's
disciple i would like to hear about what Dunbalf has been up to these past 30 years where he was absent, lets go to my office

Is that alright

Sorry about it being a bit disordered, but should be easier to talk here than the throne

That's because

Even when you had taken that cool looking screenshot of him

That old man was your favorite, so why did you use the cosmetic item?

M.. My masterpiece Dunbalf..!

説明中

Cash items can only be touched by the acquirer

I would love to give it to you but...

With that said, do you happen to have a cosmetic box on you?

Please give it to me!!!

How could this be....

Sorry Sorry..

If you're gonna try and comfort me, then atleast do it after you stop laughing!

I would like to do something for you who protected this country but my hands are tied

What is this world?

It might be rude, but I would like to ask you a question.

Even after 30 years?

That I don't know

And if you think about it, it's possible that the world that we originally lived in
was just a VR-World
from another world

We don't know if it exists in the same universe that contains the Earth that we were born on, or in a completely different universe.

Well... even though this world has become a reality rather than a game

Yea

Right to the point then

By the way you already know about the disappearance of you the nine wisemen, don't you?

Indeed the development city was quite the sight to behold

Praise me ♡

In this kind of world, I have been managing this kingdom for 30 years

Hmm the world seems to be nested

サレハサレハ

Now then...
What do you think would happen to this kingdom when it's strongest shields are absent.

Furthermore

Intervention from other countries increased with them trying to acquire more land. It did not escalate to full blown wars however the repeated skirmishes exhaust our country. That's the current situation here.

With the nine wisemen protecting this kingdom, we could focus on the development of our country and we have avoided any wars and kept peace by art development and exchange. However with the loss of the nine wisemen.

What...
immovable kings did ?

If i tell you that the kings of the three beginner kingdoms
the heavenly kings took command then even you can imagine what kind of situation we were in

The great

Even when the founding of countries
was booming no one dared to declare war on them

With various benefits, it guarantees
the safety of new players

The starting place for all new players
And the place where Strong NPCs are gathered, that can easily beat even the seasoned players

The force that attacked
was large enough to make the three kingdoms
serious

Not something smaller
countries
could deal with

It began with demon
armies from three kingdoms the sky

We say it's the defense
of
the defense
but infact the whole continent
was invovled

Their attacks were mainly focused on the three kingdoms
but damage eventually spread to the neighboring countries

And so with that being the case as a precaution a limited anti-war-treaty was signed

With no time to wage wars

Thus when the war ended everyone was busy with repairs

Hmm So that means the treaty is about to end

Indeed

With the loss of all but one of the nine wisemen, the other countries would be looking for a chance to invade Arkite

To summarize for 10 years after the treaty was signed war and all hostilities leading to it were forbidden, so the countries could focus on restoration

Restoration of the destroyed countries...

The reason that the city has changed so much is also due to the restoration after the war.

You are the last one

I would like you to look at the friendlist
from before

The
truth is Dunbalf

Everyone else is already online

And i think that this is destiny

But you appeared before me like this not a moment
too soon

That I
don't know

But then why is nobody present during this predicament

At the very least half of them should suffice

I won't ask you to locate all of them

#1/4

I realize that finding them without any clues will be difficult

As you know the nine wisemen are a bunch of peculiar people that you can't deal with using normal methods

This kingdom needs enough power to be capable of protecting itself

But during this year where we are protected through the treaty
